JUDGEMENT

- The court observed that the police officers acted in a most high handed way.
- Court further reminded the duties of 'police officers who are the custodians of law and order should have the greatest respect for personal liberty of citizens and should not treat the law by stopping to such words acts of lawlessness.
- The court followed the decision of supreme court in RAJIA, SHAM AND SEBASTIAN HENCRAY cases.

CONCLUSION

THE PROVISION IN THE NATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION ACT HAS BEEN HEAVILY CRITICISED FOR VIOLATING THE RIGHT OF INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY AND SECURITY UNDER THE CONSTITUTION SO MUCH THAT THE NATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION HAS ADVISED THE GOVERNMENT TO TAKE STEPS TO BRING IN LIBERTY IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE EMERGENCY UNDER THE CONSTITUTION HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED IN ARTICLE 35A. FURTHERMORE, THE GOVERNMENT HAS TO TAKE STEPS TO BRING IN ARTICLE 35A IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE EMERGENCY UNDER THE CONSTITUTION HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED IN ARTICLE 35A.
